

Dear J and A,

I am thrilled to bits, tickled pink, chuffed to death (not to mention over the moon!) Glide 3 is... !♪!~! !~! ! ! (simply too good for words!)

Thanks a 1,000,000! It was so XxXxciting - with my heart at a 180° stop and my head in a 360° whirl, I've never had so much fun attempting to tame a 40 mile an hour blancmange skidding on skates! I've enjoyed other 'experiences' in the past (tandem skydiving, ballooning; 'flying' microlights, helicopters, aeroplanes and gliders but declare your awesome adventure head and shoulders (nay arms and legs!) above all others. Those former activities made a token gesture of 'involvement' or 'taking control'. When I left your venue, I had no need of a hovercraft, as I was floating on cloud nine with a real sense of achievement, fulfilment and satisfaction - all thanks to the personal, exclusive, undivided attention I received throughout. Alex is so laid back it's a wonder he doesn't fall over! His clear, calm, encouraging, expert tuition instilled total confidence and trust. I am neither brave nor clever (my I.Q. test came back negative!) yet I was enabled and inspired to push my personal boundaries beyond my wildest expectations! My husband could not believe his spectacles!

Thanks too Jo (this is beginning to sound like the BAFTAs!) for the friendly, welcoming hospitality. Such comfort and indulgence made us feel very pampered and special! Your kindness warms the cockles (and muscles!) of our hearts! In such an accessible yet idyllic location Steve and Sunshine thoroughly enjoyed spectating (almost as much as the delicious cake!!)

As Steve has pleaded with Santa for a return visit and a go of his own, I greatly look forward to seeing you again, in the not too distant future.

With my very best wishes

Marcia Harvey
